WBFSH General Assembly
Development Department

Budapest, Hungary
3rd December 2018
Role of Development Dept

- Promote growth in membership of WBFSH

- Processing of applications
  - Present application to Executive Committee
  - Executive Committee advises Board on applications
  - Board decides on admission of applicant
  - General Assembly can overrule decision of Board

- Responsible for proposing alterations to statutes

- Deals with matters relating to adherence to principles in statutes
Membership Applications 2017/2018

- New Membership Applications 2018
  - Sporthorse Studbook India (INSH)
  - North American Studbook (NAS)
  - Asociación Española de Criadores de Caballos Anglo-árabes (AECCAAá)

- Membership Decisions to be Ratified from the 2017 General Assembly
  - Confederation Internationale de l'Anglo Arabe (CIAA)
  - New Zealand Hanoverian Society (NZHS)
  - The Lithuanian Horse Breeders Association (LHBA)
  - The New Zealand Warmblood Association (NZHB)
Sporthorse Studbook India (INSH)

- Applying for “membership” status of the WBFSH
- The studbook has approximately 15 members and operates in the Embassy International Riding School India
- This studbook is the first sport horse studbook to operate in India
- Its goal is to provide the country with quality sport horses that are suitable to compete at international events such as the Olympics
- INSH carries out both stallion and mare inspections.
Sporthorse Studbook India (INSH)

Studbook Statistics:
- Number of members in the organisation: 15
- Number of active breeding mares in the studbook: 20
- Number of currently active stallions approved: 4
- Total number of horses registered: 44 (in 2016)
- Total number of foals: 20 (the studbook was established in 2016 therefore figures from the last 5 years are not available)

- Board of WBFSH has requested that the application to become a member studbooks is resubmitted when the studbook is more established and to be of sufficient size.
North American Studbook (NAS)

- Applying for “membership” status of the WBFSH
- NAS has approximately 110 members and is based in the USA.
- Its goal is to create a competitive US based studbook that will produce Olympic level horses in the disciplines of show jumping, dressage and eventing.
- NAS carries out both stallion and mare inspections.
North American Studbook (NAS)

Studbook statistics:
- Number of members in the organisation: 110/120
- Number of active breeding mares in the studbook: 120/150
- Numbers of currently active stallions approved: 30
- Total number of horses registered: 335/400
- Total number of Foals: 50 for 2018

 1\textsuperscript{st} number represents the complete applications the 2\textsuperscript{nd} represents those in progress

Board of WBFSH has requested that the studbook reapply for membership to the WBFSH when it is more established in terms of population size and membership structure.
Asociación Española de Criadores de Caballos Anglo-árabes (AECCAá)

- Applying for “membership” status of the WBFSH
- AECCAá aims to promote the Anglo-Arab breed in Spain and to assist in the production of Spanish bred horses that will compete in the three Olympic disciplines and endurance.
- AECCAá carries out both stallion and mare inspections.
Asociación Española de Criadores de Caballos Anglo-árabes (AECCAá)

- Studbook statistics:
  - Number of members in the organisation: 983
  - Number of active breeding mares in the studbook: 420
  - Number of currently active stallions approved: 94
  - Total number of horses registered: 7054
  - Total number of foals in the last 5 years:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Year</th>
<th>No. of Foals</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2013</td>
<td>150</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2014</td>
<td>170</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2015</td>
<td>241</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2016</td>
<td>274</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2017</td>
<td>274</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Board of WBFSH have agreed to accept the AECCAá membership application this year. This is subject to ratification at the 2019 General Assembly.
The New Zealand Hanoverian Society Inc. (NZHS)

- The NZHS Studbook was founded in 1993.

- The breeding aim of the NZHS is to breed highly talented sport horses for dressage, showjumping, eventing and driving.

- The New Zealand Hanoverian Society Inc. (NZHS) was granted 'Member' status in 2017 and is now being proposed for ratification by the General Assembly.
The Lithuanian Horse Breeders Association
(LHBA)

- The Lithuanian Horse Breeders Association (LHBA) was established in 1993.

- The Lithuanian Horse Breeders Association (LHBA) was granted 'Member' status in 2017 and is now being proposed for ratification by the General Assembly.
The New Zealand Warmblood Association (NZWA)

- The New Zealand Warmblood Association was established in 1979.

- The NZWA Breeding goal is to produce horses capable of International representation in the Olympic disciplines of Dressage, Show jumping and Eventing.

- The New Zealand Warmblood Association (NZWA) was granted 'Member' status in 2017 and is now being proposed for ratification by the General Assembly.